STUDENT LIFE

Brisk Evening Sets Mood for Homecoming

A

Students scavenged the countryside for branches and twigs to put the traditional Football Homecoming Bonfire ablaze. This year all four classes were to unite to build one huge fire, but the enthusiastic seniors attempted to revive the exciting old traditional rivalry by seeing who could build the bigger fire. However, their tiny fire failed to be victorious.

On October 4 the homecoming queen and her court were presented to the anxious crowd. After the crown and roses were presented John Coleman and Gale Wilcox congratulated the queen with a kiss. The only disappointment on this memorable night was a loss to Brunswick.

The next night couples danced to the music of Windfall in the cafeteria.

Villain Strikes Again in the Drunkard

On November 16 and 17 under the direction of Mrs. Hamilton and student director, Marianne Stutz, melodrama was the name of the game as the Triway Thespians presented a delightful version of "The Drunkard."

The audience entered into the spirit of the play by hissing and booing the villain. Several Vaudeville acts also spiced the show with comedy and amusement.

The action of "The Drunkard" revolves around the villainous lawyer, Cribbs, and his scheme to rob Edward, our young and handsome hero, of his rich estate and beloved wife, Mary. Cribbs plans to do this by turning Edward into a drunkard. Edward falls hopelessly into the lawyer's evil trap. When all seems lost, Mary stumbles upon a miracle cure for Edward's love of rum. Cribb's plans are foiled and once again good triumphs over evil.

Titan Fans Gather for Homecoming Victory

On the night of January 10, many Titan fans squeezed into the gymnasium bleachers to see the presentation of the 1975 Basketball Homecoming Queen and her court. The Titans' triumph over the Orrville Red Riders with the impressive score of 73-53 added much to this exciting Homecoming evening.

This year's Homecoming queen, Kim Wharton, received the crown and a bouquet of roses from the former queen, Deb Armstrong, while Casey Dutter and Ken Flinner gave Kim the traditional kiss. Kim received a watch and trophy from Mr. Ed Selders of Friendly Wholesale, who also presented a box of candy to each member of her court. After these events the queen and the court were escorted to their seats where they witnessed the Titan victory.

Assemblies Get Triway Students Involved

Variety and student involvement helped to make this year's assemblies more interesting. Students got into the action as Charles King presented an entertaining repertoire of singing and tunes called "Music in the Air" on October 11.

American history was brought to life by Jim Green and Bill Johnson, two talented young actors. The program was called "Spies and Traitors." At the end, a group of students acted as jury in the trial of an Anderson prison master.

The next assembly, performed by Jean Max-Sam, informed students about the dances and customs of Haiti, his native land. Students were asked to come on stage to learn native Haiti dance, while Jean provided an African beat on his bongo drum.

The National Honor Society Induction was held on March 18 as twenty students were added to the ranks of Triway scholars. The induction included a description of leadership qualities and poetry.

The members of the Wooster Exchange Club presented Triway with the Freedom Shrine, a collection of historic documents, on April 11. Mr. W.J. Watson, principal, accepted the shrine for the school.

To finish the year, the Student Council sponsored the movie, Maurie on May 2.

Students "Boogie Down" at Seasonal Dances

This year's dances started off with the Football Homecoming dance on October 5, sponsored by the Student Council. Music was provided by "Windfall" from Akron.

The French Club held a record hop on November 2 with "Paris" as the theme.

Couples danced to the music of "Suntown" from Fredericksburg at the "Snowball" dance on December 21. Couples had the privilege of talking to Santa Claus, alias W.J. Watson, our principal.

On February 1 students came to "boogie down" at the Spanish Club "Grease Hop."

GAA sponsored the "Heart Hop," a girl-ask-boy dance, on March 15. "Skye" from Ashland helped to make the dance a total success.

Intramural Sports Keep Students Active

Intramural sports kept students active this year as guys and girls participated in non-conference games. This year's intramural program started off with volleyball, as Haney's Hurricane won the championship for the second year in a row. During Lunch periods a basketball free throwing contest was held with Ron Culbertson as the champ. Ping pong intramurals were also held during Lunch periods with each period having a winner. In intramural basketball the faculty triumphed over each student team, however, the Golden Gophers were recognized as the runner-up. Mr. Angelo was the man behind the scenes who helped make intramural sports possible.

Active Students and Scholars Are

Throughout the school year ambitious students worked hard at achieving set goals to prepare for the future. These students, outstanding in scholastic achievement, athletics, and citizenship were recognized at the annual awards assembly held on May 14.

In June, four students represented Triway at Girls' and Boys' State. The girls, Joy Schwarzwalder and Deb Weaver attended Capital University for Girls' State. For Boys' State Dave Johnston and Rick Martine went to Ohio University.

In addition to the recognition of scholastic and athletic involvement, students were commended for their contributions to FTA, Titan Talk, and the Library Club. Also, this year a new award was given to Mike Boley for his prompt completion of course assignments in Mr. Zody's OWA class.

"Royal Banquet" Enhances Festive Evening

After much planning and decision-making, the construction of King Arthur's Court got underway during the week of April 19. Under the direction of Daryl Wengerd and John Zoss, many juniors worked hard as they succeeded in turning the Shreve Armory into a medieval castle.

On Saturday, April 19, the tradition of having a prom banquet came back into existence for the 1975 Junior-Senior Prom. Couples feasted at the "royal banquet" from 6:00-8:00. The waitresses were dressed as ladies of the court, while the waiters wore belted chambray shirts and black tights.

Prom-Goers Enjoy Romantic Atmosphere

After dinner couples proceeded to the Shreve Armory where they danced in an atmosphere of chivalry in King Arthur's Court. Couples entered the castle through a drawbridge surrounded by a moat that was inhabited by a huge green dragon. Stone castle walls were ornamented with medieval torch-like lamps and shields. Excaliber, King Arthur's famous sword, was embedded in a large paper mache rock that sat in the center of the dance floor. Although couples started to leave the dance at 11:00, many were still enjoying the music of Sunntown up to the last minute of 11:30.

From 12:30-5:00 A.M. tired prom-goers assembled at the YMCA for the post prom. Many couples spent the evening swimming, playing ping pong, pool, and various other games, while others danced to the music of Skye in the gym. Two movies, "The Life and Times of Judge Roy Bean" and "The Reivers" were also shown to end a night filled with many fond memories.

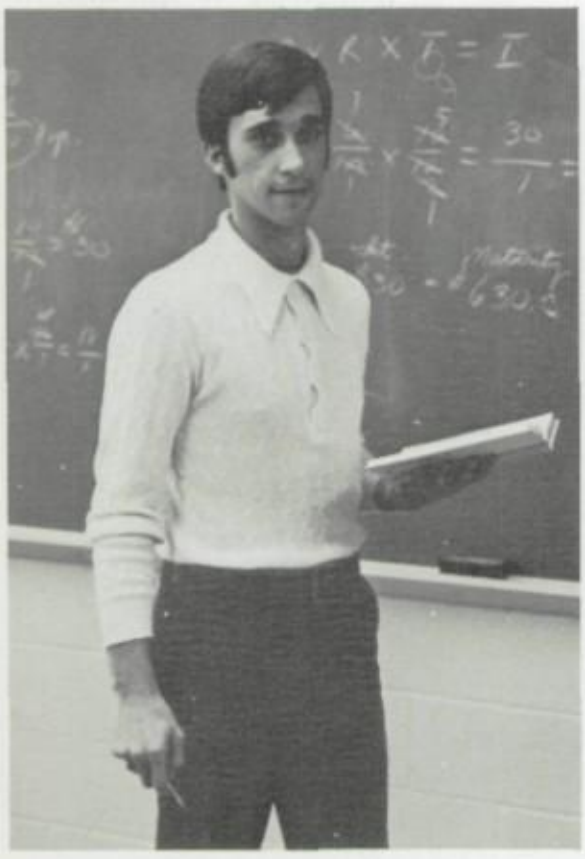
Student Council Plans Dances, Assemblies



As a General Business Teacher Mr. Angelo also takes time out for Student Council.

Greg Cantrell poses for a picture while enjoying a dance sponsored by Student Council.

This year's Student Council was led by all female officers. Serving as Pres. was Ty Wile, V.Pres, Rhonda Findley, Sec. Tina Chapman, and Treas. Deb Weaver.

Many dances and assemblies were sponsored by Student Council which brought in the extra money that was needed for buying toys for residents at Apple Creek for Christmas Presents.

During the months of April and May they sponsored a Student Exchange Day. Students traded places with those from West Holmes, Dalton, Northwestern and many others to see what their school was like.

Keep up the good work in the future years.

Selling corsages at Homecoming time was another of many money-making projects for Student Council.

Each year the Varsity T grows bigger as more boys show that they have what it takes to get a Varsity letter.

The guys always have two money-making projects which are the popcorn machine that they faithfully run at basketball and football games and the coat check during basketball season. Inflation really hit this year as they charged 15 cents to hang up your coat.

With the money raised as a result of this project, the club plans to carpet the boys' locker room.

To most girls at Triway FHA is a very important and active club. It consists of many members and is under the leadership of Mrs. Dice and Mrs. McCay.

Many of their activities consisted of FHA week, when they helped Mr. Stair, had a pizza party, gave away gum drops and other considerate tasks. They also attended a Flower and Garden Show which was very educational.

As president, Jody Edington had a very successful year with all pitching in to help make the memories of their club last always.

FHA members selling candy bars is an annual event to raise money for various activities.

Many FHA'ers lend a helping hand in preparing different recipes for a fair contest.

Vickie Ackerman is proud to earn the title, Girl of the Year, after all her hard work.

One of the trustworthy advisors of FHA is Mrs. Dice who is always giving girls good advice.

Mrs. McKay also advises FHA'ers on how to correctly check each and every seam.

Receiving Awards Is the Highlight of FFA

Brad Moore was President of FFA this year and thought of many activities for the boys to participate in. Among them they sold oranges and grapefruit during the winter. In the fall of the Year they sold apple cider. They also participated in FFA basketball games.

The boys have also participated in many contests and have always placed very high.

GAA Is Filled With Many Happy Moments

This years Girl's Athletic Assoc. was led by Pres. Mindy Bresson. Each Monday night was set for a variety of activities for the girls. They played flag football, basketball, and volley ball. Among their special activities was a swimming party at the YMCA and the annual Mother-Daughter banquet held at Wright Estate.

To make financial ends meet the girls sold candles with Diane Chapin being the top sales girl. They also collected dues and had a cake raffle. GAA is the most active and enjoyed club in the school.

Mrs. Sturgeon congratulates Mindy Bresson on receiving Girl of the Year Award.

Dramatists Develop Talents in Performance

In order to become a member of Drama Club, a student must accumulate points by experience in acting, play committees, or drama class. Points are also given for plays a student has seen during high school. Through experience, Drama Club members learn that putting on plays is a mixture of fun and hard work.

The members of the Spanish Club are fun-loving people. This is evident by the many parties and dances they enjoy. A Halloween Party was an excellent way to begin the school year. The hit of the Christmas Party was a Pinata made by art talented Spanish Club members. A huge success is the only way to describe the Grease Hop where students spent the night clapping and swaying.

After working so hard to raise money, the club plans to spend it on a trip to Mexico.

Paulette McGee, Diane Clampitt, Penny Swingle, and Miss Cvelbar enjoy making extra money by having bake sales at football games.

Del Hackett makes the most out of that last dance at the Grease Hop.

Snow Cancels Quiz Team's Chances at State

The Latin Club has the honor of being associated with the Ohio Junior Classical League and the National Junior Classical League.

Christmas Caroling is an annual event. The Latin Club members sing songs to the people of Wayne County Home and Horn's Nursing Home in Latin.

Due to the March 14th snow storm the club's participation in the State J.C.L. Convention had to be cancelled. A quiz bowl team made up of Doug Ward, Bob Merrilat, Rich Monahan, Bill Anfang, and Dave Johnston, were to compete in a mythology contest.

In past years the club has had participants in the National Convention.

Janet Himes, Kathy Meirs, Bob Merrilat enjoy singing Christmas Carols in Latin at the County Home.

Goals are set achieve, and French Club members hope to achieve their goal of a trip to the 1976 Expo in Quebec, Canada.

The group earned money from bake sales, a stationery sale, and a red, blue, and orange frisbee sale. "Paris" was a dance sponsored by the club which gave members a chance to enjoy making money.

A good time was enjoyed by all with a visit to a French restaurant where members experienced new foods and attempted to put what they had learned to work.

Activities such as roller skating and swimming provided a finale for the school year of 1974-1975.

A — Paris was the theme of the dance held by the French Club as a money-making project. B — Cheryl Armstrong and Trish Rose enjoy the atmosphere of the French Club dance.

One of the largest clubs at Triway is the College Club, lead by Mr. Jerry Davault. This Year the 117 members attended the annual College Day at the College of Wooster. Representatives from the major Ohio institutions of higher learning were present to talk about their programs with interested students. This year College Club sold Triway License plates at the basketball games. All proceeds went into the College Club Loan Fund which makes funds available to seniors who need financial aid.

Responsibility Is the Key to Being an Aide

We have approximately four types of aides at Triway and all play a very important part in the lives of everyone.

Athletic Aides get the sports schedules ready, library aides keep the books in order, office aides delivered those sometimes unwanted messages, and last but not least, the cafeteria aides serve us our delicious meals.

Without these people things might never get done, because their jobs are important to all.

Triway Choirs Perform in Concerts, Contest

Triway's two choirs, freshman and senior, performed in two concerts this year, Christmas and Spring. Soloists for the Christmas Concert were Larry Strong, Diane Preston, Deb Tschiegg, Julie Walter, Joy Schwarzwalder, Denny Hackett, Wayne Hitchcock, and Brian Schellin.

At the Christmas Concert an ensemble composed of several members of the senior choir sang "Sleigh Ride." This ensemble also sang at a church in Wooster.

The senior choir competed in the district contest at Copley on March 15, receiving a rating of excellent.

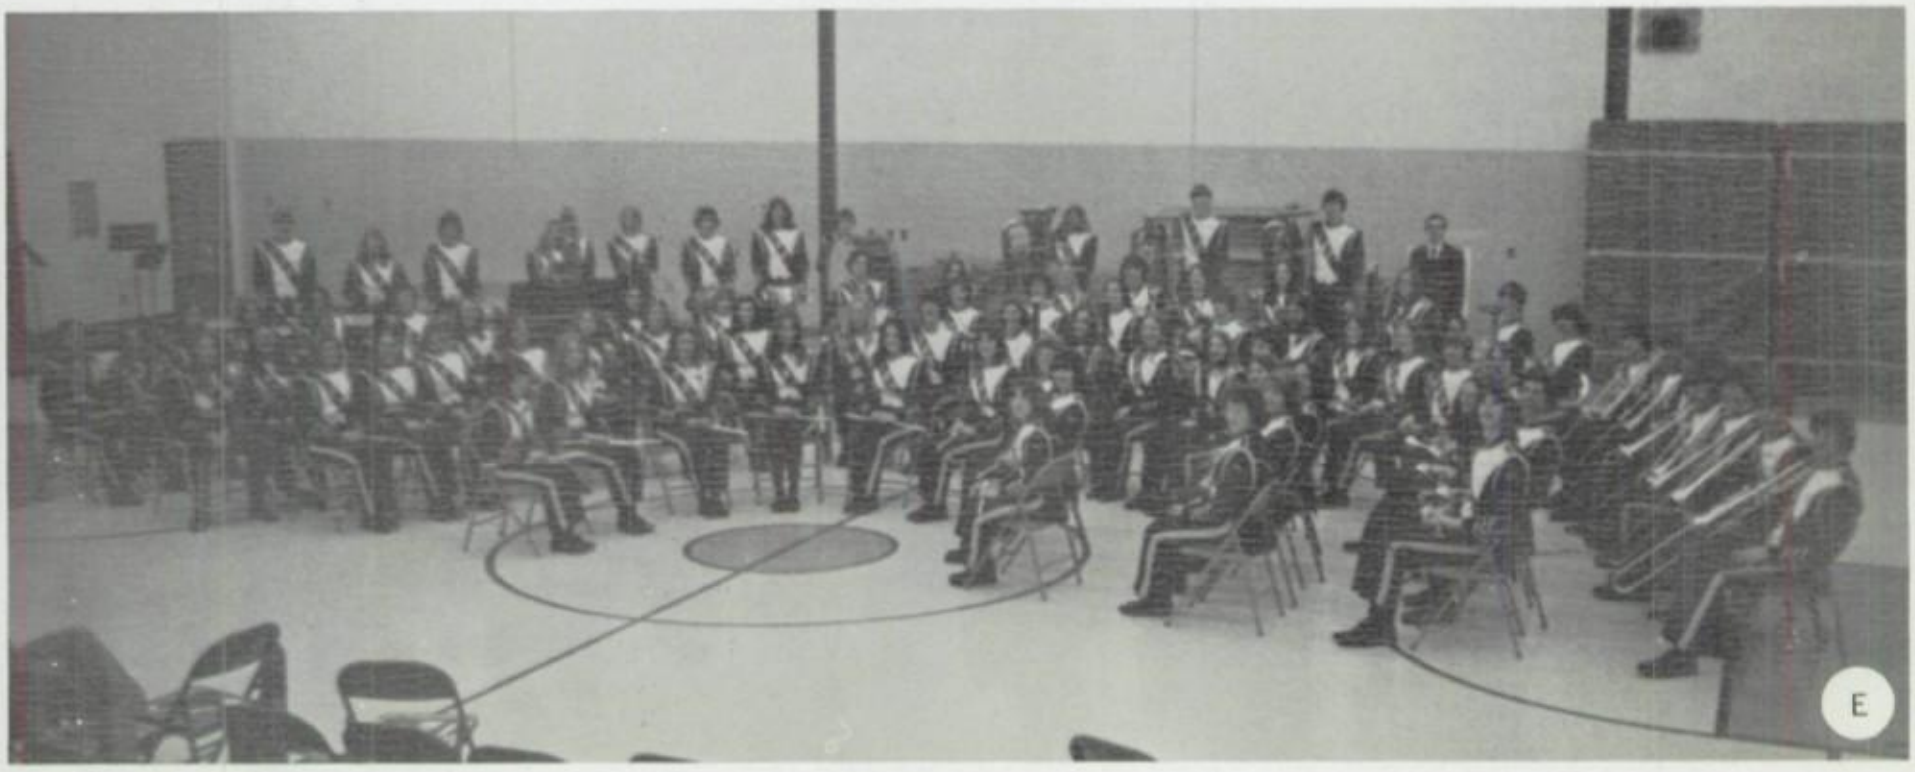
Long Practice Plus Hard Work Equal Success

A — The Triway High School 1974-75 Marching Band B — As the final 10th period bell rings, Lita Messmore prepares her clarinet for another session of band. C — At the finale of a show, the band does chair steps to the sidelines. D — During the concert band season, Susan Ickes puts her large-sized contra-alto clarinet together. E — Trumpet-player Norman Gifford and Clarinetist Sue Tschiegg open into a diamond formation with the band to the music of "Oh Babe, What Would You Say?"

During the last two or three weeks of August from 8 in the morning until 3 in the afternoon bandsmen and majorettes gather each weekday to learn new shows, music and routines. Triway had it's largest marching band with a total of ninty-six members.

During the spirng concert, awards were given to all bandsmen. Karen Brazee was the recipient of the Douglas Annette Memorial Award and for the most inspirational bandsman.

A: Mr. Books smiles, pleased with the sound produced by the band. B: Seniors, C. Natalizio, D. Bowman, and J. Speicher play the French horn. C: Pausing for one of her many "rests" is M. Hess. D: Showing a more serious mood, Mr. Brooks conducts the Spring Concert. E: Triway's concert band.



Pep Band Provides Spirit, Entertainment

The Pep Band is made up of a small group of spirited bandsmen. These people open each home varsity basketball game by playing the national anthem. They spread spirit to the crowds at basketball games by cheering and playing fight songs and the jungle beat.

The band celebrated the end of the basketball season with a party.

A — Dan Bowman and Bob Merillat take a break from music and get quite involved in the game. B — Ralph Noletti and Bruce Polen consider what song to play next. C — Pep Band: L. Strong, D. Preston, S. New Uniforms Add to Majorettes' Appearance

This year the majorettes were headed by Jane Besancon. Five of the girls were seniors, and one was a junior. They put their heads together and tried to come up with new and different routines. The results were fantastic.

New outfits including armbands and headbands were purchased by the Triway Music Boosters and perked up the appearance of the band.

The majorettes used a variety of materials during halftime shows. Some of these were pompoms, hats and canes, cardboard peanut men, and fire batons.

A — Head majorette Jane Besancon smiles at the crowds as she performs during half-time. B — Senior majorette Cheryl Akins shows some of her twirling ability in this half-time routine. C — The majorettes pose in front of the school before leading the march down to the football field. D — Precision is the word for the majorettes' performance at football games.

Titan Talk Spreads News All Over School

The school paper is published about once a month to keep us informed on the many activities going on at school.

The students working on Titan Talk spend most of their time interviewing many different people. No matter what happens at school, people on Titan Talk seem to catch every detail.

Under the leadership of Mr. Coleman, the Titan Talk always delivers the news on time. Students eagerly look forward to each issue.

A — Claudia Swoger finds time between deadlines to have her picture taken for the annual. B — Besides teaching many of the English courses, Mr. Coleman finds time to be Titan Talk advisor.

Due to uncontrollable circumstances the new advisor this year was Miss Schneider. Although it was a new experience for her, she spent long hours helping them with the many problems.

The main money-making project for annual staff this year was selling ads to the business community.

To reward themselves for the long hours they spent producing the annual, the staff had an outing at Mohican. They had what it took to make a good annual: time and dedication.

New Face Brings Change to THS School Life

This year with the change in administration to a new principal, Mr. W.J. Watson, our school has become more disciplined. Even before the first day of school we knew things were changing. Two weeks before school started we received our schedules in the mail and were informed that all schedule changes would be taken care of by the first couple weeks of school. Another change that happened rather early in the year is the alleviation of home rooms. Also, with the new classes that are now offered students have more electives to choose from in making out their schedule.

A — Mr. Watson, as head of the school, confirms scheduled dates of athletic events. B — As superintendent of Triway schools, Mr. Smith sees to it that everything runs smoothly. C — Mr. Glass, as assistant principal, excuses students from school and makes sure they're where they're supposed to be. D — One of our guidance counselors, Mr. Davault takes care of the money collected for the PSAT-NMSQT test taken by sophomores. E — Mrs. Schmidt, another guidance counselor, checks the work of a student concerning the records of WCJVS students. F — Mrs. Tschiegg enjoys her office job and works hard to get the work done. G — Mrs. Mohr who is also a secretary changes money for lunch-eaters. H — As a clerk for for the Board of Education, Mrs. Bishop comes to school bright and early. I — Mrs. Tausch also helps in the office. J — Board of Education: L-R: Floyd Gwin, William Carlton, Lloyd Snyder, John Ziegler, and Robert Iceman.

Under the leadership of Dave Todaro the class of "77" found themselves having three money making projects this year. First they sold Triway jackets for $25.00 After selling the jackets, the sophs sold first-aid kits. Their efforts did not stop with the close of school as they sponsored the dunking booth at Shreve Homecoming.

It's tradition at Triway for the Sops to get rings, and the class of "77" followed in previous classes examples.

Their advisors are Mrs. Hamilton, Mr. Yoh, and Mr. Coleman.

Juniors Work Many Long Hard Hours on Prom

A — Karen Hofacre works on the float for the King and Queen. B — Roger Edington finds that decorating for the Prom can be "fun". C — The girls spend their long hours making the float while ... D — The boys spend their time wallpapering. E — Daryl Wengerd, co-chairman of the decorating committee, works on the paper masche dragon. F — After work is completed, Juniors stand back and admire their work.

A — Could it be that Wayne Hitchcock is late for class? B — While classes change, Paulo Gallo somehow manages not tripping up the steps. C — Denny Hackett practices his solo for the choir concert. D — What small devious plan could Deb Weaver have up her sleeve this time? E — Dave Johnston, Dan Oliver, and Jeff Gilson are always eager to do a little work, especially when they can get out of class to do it. F — Brian Schellin, president of the Junior class, always has some kind of a joke to pull at a class meeting.

Srs. Find Meaning in Combined Ceremonies

The thirteenth annual graduation exercises of Triway High School were held June 1, 1975, with 170 seniors receiving their diplomas. Baccalaureate and commencement were combined into one ceremony for the first time in Triway history. Reverend Ed Davidian was the guest speaker with the topic "Actions Speak Louder than Words." In expanding the theme of his speech, each graduate was given a new one dollar bill as he marched out of the gymnasium. The class was priveleged to have a local group consisting of Susan Peterson, Tom Peterson, and John Taylor sing the class song, "Poems, Prayers, and Promises." Stu Starr, Class President, presented the class gift of a monetary donation to the Cancer Fund. Diplomas were presented by Board of Education president John Ziegler. Graduation was held in a packed gymnasium due to adverse weather.

Don't walk ahead of me;
I may not follow.
Don't walk behind me;
I may not lead.
Walk beside and by my friend.

CLASS GIFT:
Donation to the Cancer Fund

CLASS COLORS:
Purple and Yellow.

CLASS FLOWER:
Yellow Rose.

"And Talk of Poems and Prayers and Promises"

I have to say it now, it's been a good life all in all.
It's really fine to have a chance to hang around.
And lie there by the fire, and watch the evening tire while all my friends and my old lady sit and pass the pipe around.
And talk of Poems, and Prayers, and Promises.
Things that we believe in
How sweet it is to love someone.
How right it is to care.
How long it's been since yesterday,
What about tomorrow?
What about our dreams and all the memories we share?

From Marathons to Rolling Paper and Ever

"Chickin Pickin," Seniors Have Done It All

For the Class of 1975, the past four years have gone by just as quickly as everyone told them they would, maybe quicker. They showed just how determined and dedicated a class could be when they hurried and worked extra hard to raise money for the prom. They had fun during their projects which included caging chickens, and a basketball marathon. They survived all the problems that other students will continue to face long after they are gone from THS: term papers, hectic schedules, skip days (and their consequences). They enjoyed at last the well earned title of Senior, the highest of the upperclassmen. Only now that their year is over, they must always look forward, remembering the past but not trying to relive it. They must set their goals high, keep trying for the best, and never give up.

The Pursuit of Excellence

A number of years ago the president of a large manufacturing company pledged his company to what he termed "The Pursuit of Excellence." His statement was echoed in countless sermons and editorials across the United States.

We commend this pursuit to the class of 1975. You are entering a world where excellence was never so desperately needed — in the abilities you bring to your job, in your community activities, and in your personal life.

We wish you success and happiness.

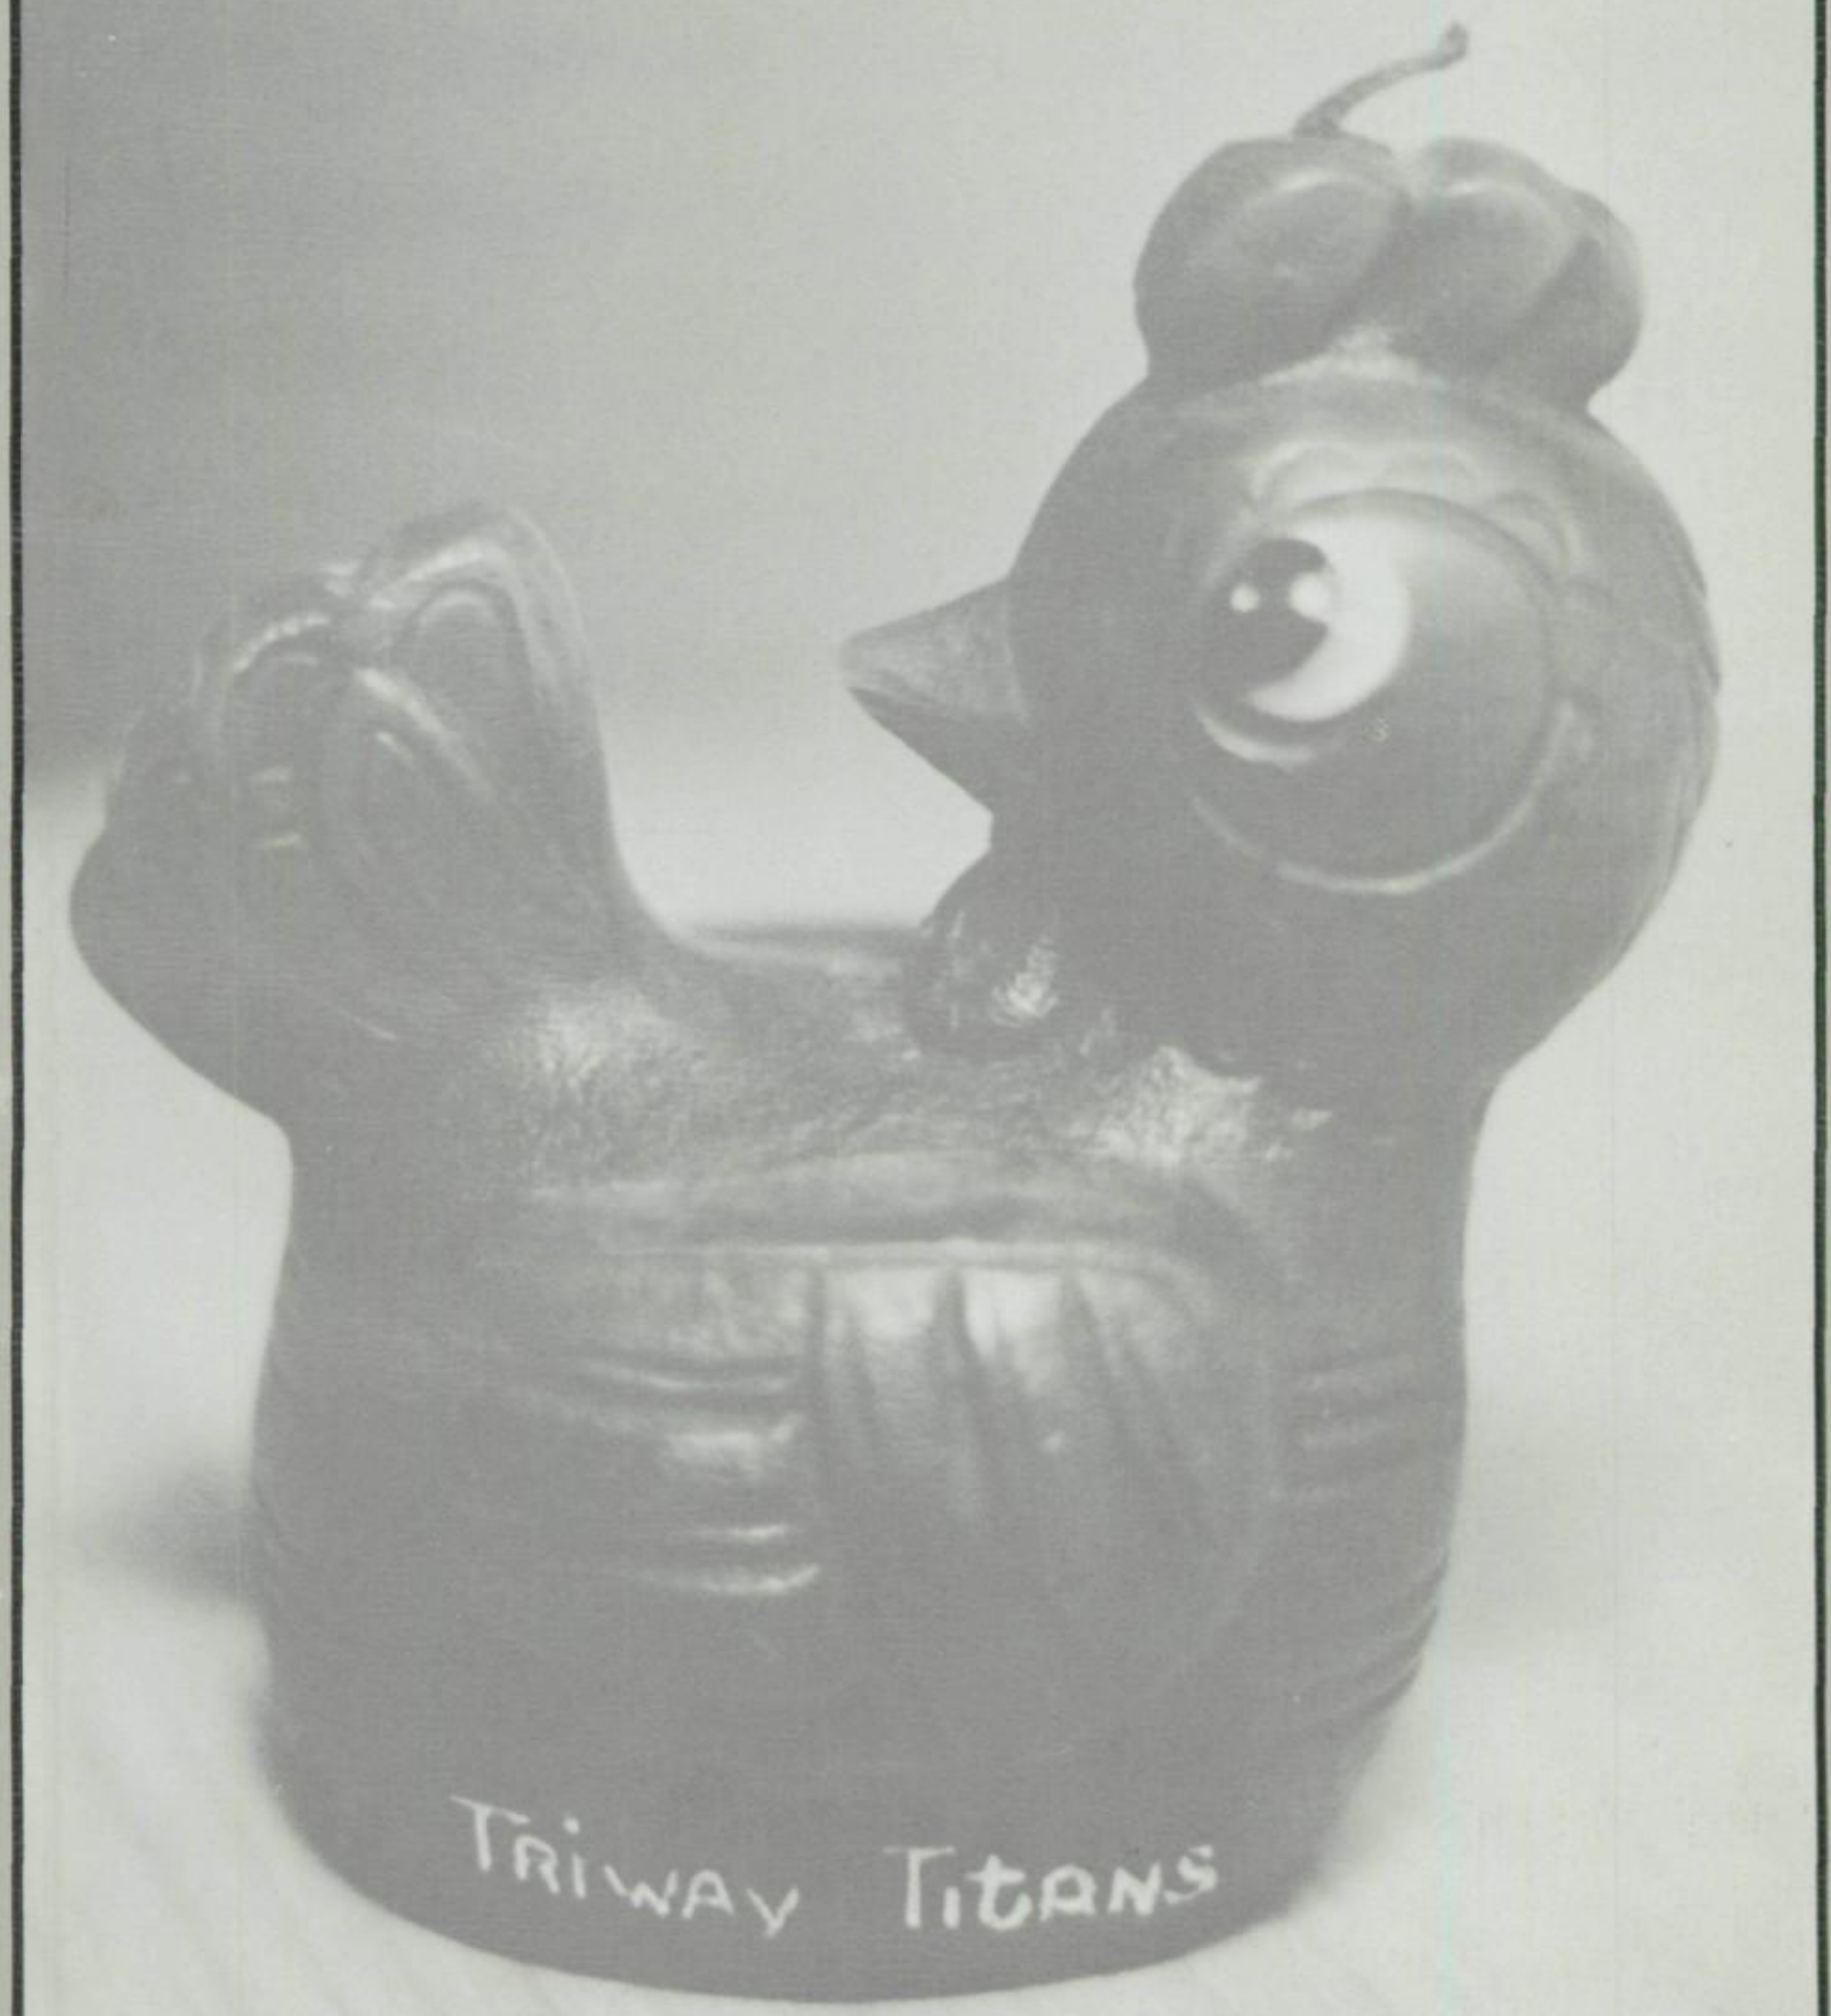
AUTOGRAPH PAGE COMPLIMENTS OF TITAN '75 STAFF



Who are we,
each of us so unique, so different?

What do we have in common?

We are who we are,
each one of us
each one of us a Titan.

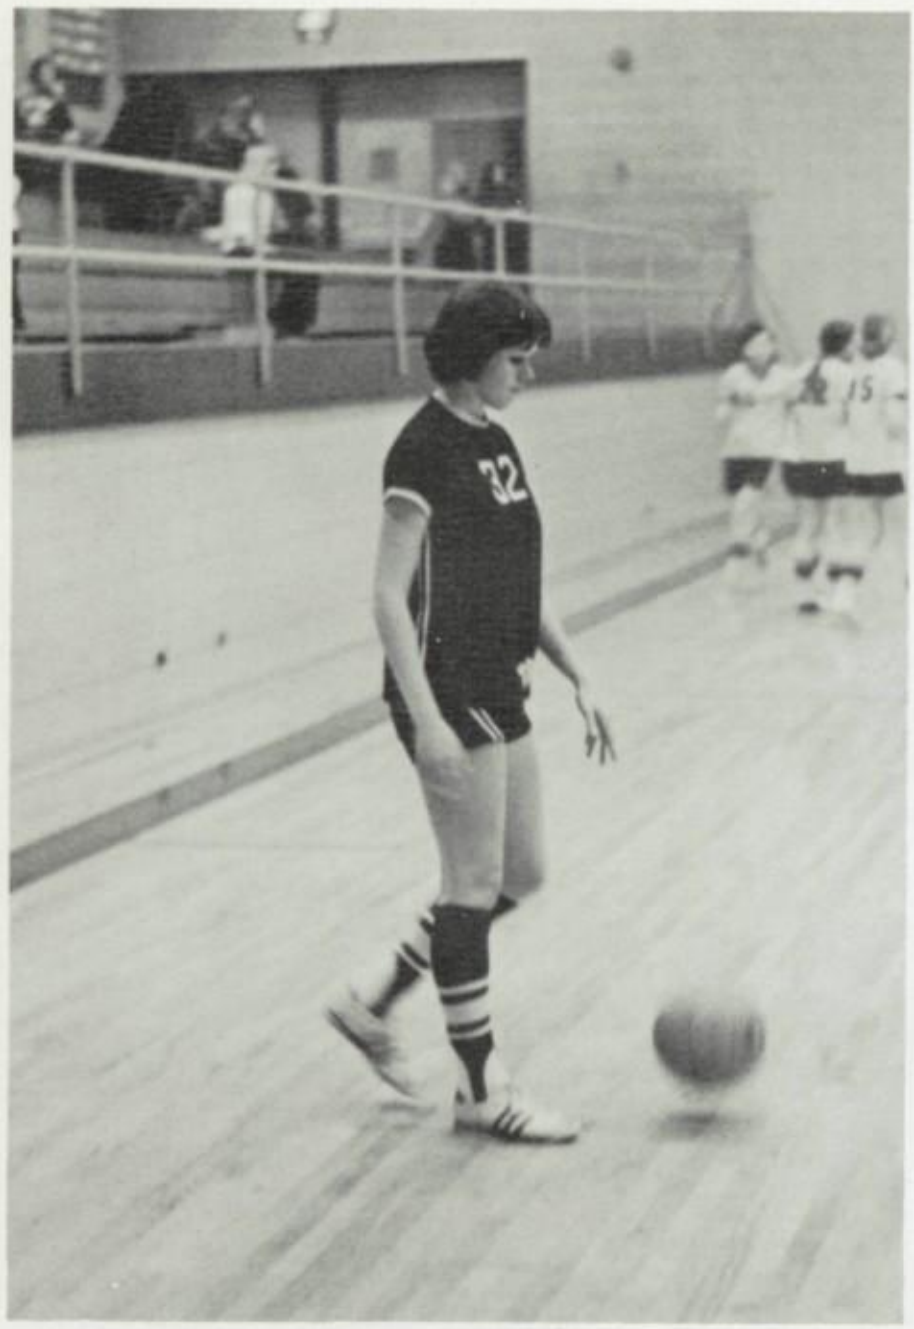
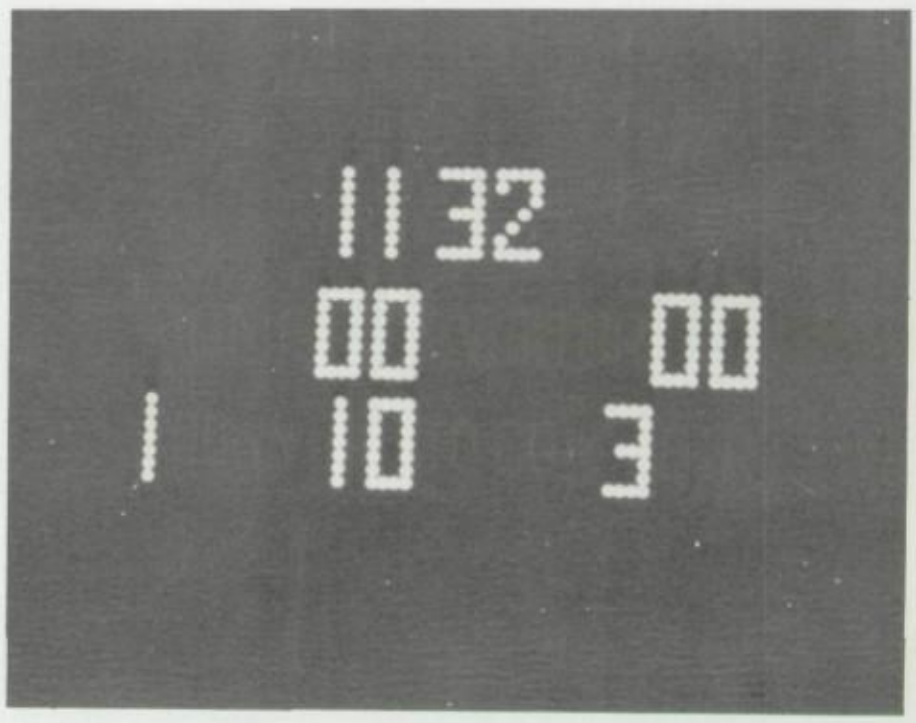
TITANS





11 32

This year the annual staff started out with one big problem: no advisor. When no one else appeared to fill the vacancy left by Mrs. Miller, a merciful Miss Schneider finally agreed to take on the responsibility. Many problems arose due to the late start, illness, and inexperience, but with the help of many people, the book was finally completed.

Special thanks go to Miss Schneider; Mr. Earl Parks, the yearbook representative, for helping us when we didn't know what we were doing; Jo Bly, for taking so many of the pictures; Joel Troyer, for developing the pictures when we needed them in a hurry; Woodard Studios; and the entire Titan '75 staff. Without the help of these people, the memories of the 1974-75 school year would not be recorded. Most of all, thanks go to the student body and faculty of Triway High School, because You Are Who You Are.
